Admissions to Practice

Admitted in Western Australia (1998), Victoria (1999)

Relevant Professional Background

- Barrister, Western Australian Bar 2010 to present

Principal areas of practice are general commercial and public law litigation, planning environmental and local government, liquor licensing, regulatory crime and professional disciplinary proceedings.
- Barrister: Victorian Bar 2007 to 2009

Practice with almost exclusive focus on planning, environment & local government law, water law, gaming (poker machines) and liquor licensing acting for all three sides of the various disputes – proponents, regulators and third party objectors. Regulators acted for included Melbourne Water and various regional water authorities, the EPA, the Director of Liquor Licensing and the Victorian Commission for Gambling Regulation. I appeared regularly in VCAT, the VCGR, the Magistrates Court, the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeal.
- Senior Associate with Russell Kennedy and Deacons 2004 to 2007

Planning, environment and local government law practice, including the development of a water law practice. I regularly acted for several State and local government clients, including Melbourne Water. I regularly appeared as solicitor advocate in criminal prosecutions and merits review proceedings and instructed on superior court litigation.
- In-house solicitor: Environment Protection Authority (Vic.) 1999 to 2004

Combined litigation and advice practice. Litigation included criminal prosecutions, merits review in VCAT and superior court litigation. Advice covered full range of Authority's activities, including the development of statutory policy and drafting of delegated legislation.

- Articled clerk and solicitor: Freehills (Perth and Melbourne) 1997 to 1999
